(b) Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class involving essentially the same hazards in the amount of premium, policy fees, or rates charged for any policy or contract of health or accident insurance or in the benefits payable thereon, or in any of the terms or conditions of such contract, or in any other manner whatever, if, in determining the class, consideration may be given to the nature of the risk, plan of insurance, the actual or expected expense of conducting the business or any other relevant factor.

(e) Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals or risks of the same class and of essentially the same hazards by refusing to insure, refusing to renew, cancelling, or limiting the amount of insurance coverage on the residential property risk, or the personal property contained therein, solely because of the age of the residential property.
(f) Refusing to insure, refusing to continue to insure, or limiting the amount of coverage available to an individual solely because of the sex, marital status, race, religion, or national origin of the individual. However, nothing in this Subsection shall prohibit an insurer from taking marital status into account for the purpose of defining persons eligible for dependent benefits. Nothing in this Section shall prohibit or limit the operation of fraternal benefit societies.
(g) Terminating or modifying coverage, or refusing to issue or refusing to renew any property or casualty policy solely because the applicant or insured or employee of either is mentally or physically impaired, unless the applicant, insured, or employee is mentally and physically incapable of operating an automobile and does not possess a valid operator's license issued by the state. However, this Subsection shall not apply to accident health insurance sold by a casualty insurer and shall not be interpreted to modify any other provision of law relating to the termination, modification, issuance, or renewal of any insurance policy or contract.

(h) Refusing to insure solely because another insurer has refused to write a policy or has cancelled or has refused to renew an existing policy in which that person was the named insured. This Subparagraph shall not apply where the refusal to continue to insure is based upon nonpayment of premium.

This Paragraph shall apply to all existing and new insurance policies as well as renewals of existing policies.

However this Paragraph shall not prevent the exercise by any mortgagee of his right to approve the insurer selected by the borrower on a reasonable non-discriminatory basis related to the solvency of the company and its ability to service the policy. The mortgagee may require that the amount of insurance be at least in an amount to protect the amount of the loan on a type of policy furnishing reasonable protection to the mortgagee in a form selected by the borrower which may include additional coverages not inuring to the benefit of the mortgagee and reasonably associated or connected with the property which is the subject of the loan or mortgage.
