DEPUTY CLERK OF COURT

MILLIMAN, INC.'S MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL
TIME TO FILE ITS APPLICATION FOR SUPERVISORY
WRIT TO THE FIRST CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEAL

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, comes Milliman, Inc. and respectfully requests this Honorable Court to afford it an additional 10 days or until and through November 3rd, 2017 to file its application for supervisory writ review with the First Circuit Court of Appeal consistent with Uniform Rule 4.3 of the Louisiana Uniform Rules of Appellate Procedure. This request is necessitated by the fact that Milliman recently retained on October 18th, 2017 additional undersigned counsel to handle the appellate review and new counsel needs that time to review the prior pleadings, briefs, rulings of this Honorable Court and prepare Milliman's writ application.

Milliman respectfully submits that this request for additional time to file its supervisory writ application will not unduly delay this proceeding nor prejudice the plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Milliman, Inc., in conformity with Uniform Rule 4.3, respectfully requests the Court to afford it additional time to submit its application for supervisory writ review with the First Circuit Court of Appeal and establish a deadline, based upon these established reasons, through November 3rd, 2017 to submit its supervisory writ application to the First Circuit regarding this Court's September 25th, 2017 Judgment.

ORDER

Upon considering Milliman's request for a limited extension of time to file its writ application, and the Court concluding this motion satisfies Uniform Rule 4.3 due to new counsel,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Milliman's motion for an extension of time through November 3rd, 2017 is hereby Granted.

Baton Rouge, Louisiana, this ²³~~19~~¹⁶ day of October, 2017.
